Client obligations under the Buildings Insurance Policy

Your duty to give information

Insurance is offered/provided on the basis You have not:

- Been convicted of or charged (but not yet tried) of a criminal offence other than road traffic offences
- Had an insurance proposal declined by an insurer
- Had an insurance renewal declined by an insurer
- Had an insurance cancelled by an insurer
- Had special terms imposed upon an insurance

These questions are designed to enable us or the insurer to obtain a comprehensive picture of the nature of the risk to be insured, and only by asking such questions and receiving answers which are given honestly and with reasonable care, can we or the insurer be in a position to offer terms which are designed to meet your demands and needs.

The reason why this is vital and extremely important is that if you fail to tell us or the insurer something when asked, or, if you answer carelessly or act deliberately or recklessly in making misrepresentations when answering questions, your policy may leave you with no insurance protection; insurers may not pay a part or all of your claim and may cancel your policy. You may find it difficult to re-arrange cover because you did not tell an insurer everything when asked, and you will have to disclose this fact when you reapply for insurance.

Awareness of Insurance Terms

When an insurance document is issued you are strongly advised to read it carefully, as all documents form the basis of the insurance contract you have purchased. Please therefore seek our advice promptly, if you are in doubt over any of the Terms or Conditions of the Policy details issued.
